Lauderdale
House

A special place

Our welcoming atmosphere makes the House a special place for funeral services, memorials and receptions.

Set in the beautiful Waterlow Park, our rooms offer tranquil views of the gardens and the opportunity for people to wander the park if they would like a few minutes of solitude and personal reflection.

We understand that a funeral is a deeply personal event, a chance to remember and celebrate the life, loves and achievements of the deceased. We can arrange services (with or without the coffin) and receptions. We pride ourselves on being as flexible as possible to ensure a fitting tribute to your loved one.

Lauderdale House welcomes all religions, cultures and beliefs.
