

Lauderdale House

KS1 & KS2: Art - The Stuarts (Lower Gallery)

Welcome to Lauderdale House. Have a look at Nell Gwynn's bath. Now, I know what you're thinking: this isn't a bath? You're right! It was built in the Stuart era as a shelf to show off fancy silver and gold items such as plates and candlesticks.

Imagine you could put anything you wanted in Nell Gwynn's bath, what would you show off to your friends and family: a medal? Your favourite food? Your favourite game? Draw your own version of Nell Gwynn's bath below:
