

Lauderdale House

KS1 & KS2: Art - The Victorians (Long Gallery)

The Long Gallery was turned into flats for the park keepers at the end of the Victorian era. They would live in the House and look after the gardens and park, much like the volunteers do today. Imagine you are a park keeper looking out of one of your windows. Spend some time sketching the gardens and park, making sure you only sketch what you can see. Use the space below for your drawing: