

Lauderdale House

KS1 & KS2: English - The Stuarts (Long Gallery)

The Long Gallery was King Charles II's bedroom. One day his lover, an actress called Nell Gwynn, held their baby out of the window! She was angry with Charles, as he would not give their son a royal title such as Duke or Lord. Charles and Nell were not married, which meant their son could not have a title. Imagine you are a news reporter seeing Nell hold her son out of the window. Write a news report on what you are seeing and how you feel below - don't forget a catchy headline:

Nell and her baby